

Back on the Farm Again

Don Henry

The girl leaves, my heart grieves
Mom & Dad can I stay here please
I'm back on the farm again
Oh no, there goes a couple dozen "I told you so's "
I'm back on the farm again

I swear I got a gun underneath the bunk bed
Gonna blow away the rooster if he wakes up the dead
I had to hock the hotrod to pay the credit card
Death is too easy, life is too hard

The folks snore 'til four
Then you gotta do the morning chores
I'm back on the farm again

When I left the hometown
I flipped a birdie at the drugstore clowns
Now I'm back on the farm again
I can't sleep, It's no good
In this peace-infested neighborhood
I'm back on the farm again

Pretty thing you're so soft
Meet me latter in the hayloft
I'm back on the farm again
The girls' great, our hearts mate
Love drips with a twist of fate
I'm back on the farm again!
