

Thanks, I Needed That

Don Henry

Crazy and lazy counting all the trains
Staring at the crossroad fork
A boat inside a bottle with libido for a brain
Til you came along and popped my cork
You gave me slow love when I was going nowhere fast
Now I go it like a poet and I didn't even know it
Thanks, I needed that Babe, thanks, I needed that

I remember memories that take me to a time
When I was a schoolboy cub
Hunting for a bottle I could turn into a dime
Man, that was the life I loved
I'd take the long way home getting filthy as an alley cat
Now I'm thirty and I'm sturdy since you got me dirty
Thanks, I needed that Babe, thanks, I needed that

Somewhere in the closet there's a billion bills to pay
Baby, I don't even care
I'm up against a deadline to find a job today
And I haven't lost a single hair
No, I'm cool and calm, everybody thinks I need a slap
But you said we were together from now until forever
Thanks, I needed that Babe, thanks, I needed that
